

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

SAMPLE

Phase 1 Graduates

841 (97%)

Phase 2 Graduates

217 (62%)

Graduate Sample Period

2010-2016

RETENTION RATES

84%

of graduates that trained in SA have been retained within the state

39%

Rural retention rate in SA

35%

For every 10 week increase in AGPT rural training weeks, graduates are 35% more likely to practise rurally

30%

of graduates who had completed their 10 year Moratorium chose to stay in rural practice

TRAINING PATHWAYS

49%

of all graduates completed their training on the rural pathway

80%

of all graduates currently working in rural areas trained on the rural pathway

20%

of all graduates currently working in rural areas trained on the general pathway

GPEX AGPT Graduates delivering general practice services in SA.

GPEX and the University of Adelaide undertook a research project to understand the regional distribution of GPEX Graduates within SA. It incorporated the personal and professional factors that may influence a graduate's future practice location.

hø™-2¾Örµ¼Dµz¶Í?t .

FACTORS INFLUENCING PRACTICE LOCATION

6x

Rural pathway graduates are 6 times more likely

GP WORKFORCE PROCEDURAL SKILLS

GRADUATES CONTRIBUTING TO TEACHING

60%